ECSA social media code of conduct

---

Type: Public

Owner: ECSA

Version: 2024

ECSA supports and promotes open dialogue and respectful exchange. The comments section on ECSA social media channels are meant to be a place for support, comment, constructive critique and meaningful exchange, and should be used as such.

ECSA has a zero-tolerance policy for comments (including text, images, videos, gifs, emojis and any other content) deemed to be:

- hate speech
- bullying or harassment
- insults, threats or personal attacks
- promoting violence
- sexually explicit
- targeting any group based on race, ethnicity, religion, sexual identity or gender identity with offensive terms
- spam and/or offering products and services unrelated to ECSA, its work and the ECSA community
- false or misleading information
- doxing (targeting anyone by publishing personally identifiable information, e.g., email address, phone number, address, physical location, etc.)

Comments found to be in violation of the code of conduct will be deleted, and the commenter may be permanently banned from posting on ECSA social media accounts at ECSA's discretion.

Visitors to the ECSA social media channels are encouraged to contact ECSA if they witness or are the target of any harassment or abuse.
